

BIBLE
Study
At
51 Belmont Drive
Shieldhill

The Bible Study for the new session has now commenced. It is non-threatening, and is a time of great fellowship. Christians do not go about with long faces - we have plenty of laughs. The evenings are very informal, starting with tea/coffee etc. followed by a time of reading God's Word, and asking what it is saying to us.

The dates for the remainder of this year are:
3rd, 17th and 31st October
14th and 28th November
12th December

That takes us to the Christmas break, and the dates for the New Year will be announced in a later copy of the Magazine.

We would be delighted to welcome new members to the group, and if you are interested, please speak to Miriam or Keith who host the evenings.

DID NOAH FISH?

A Sunday school teacher asked, "Johnny, do you think Noah did a lot of fishing when he was on the Ark?"
"No," replied Johnny. "How could he, with just two worms?"

News from St Margaret's' House

A group of eight residents and carers enjoyed a visit to our "Festival of Flowers". The sights and smells of the many arrangements were most appreciated as was the gift of a splendid bouquet for the home. Tea and biscuits met with a general approval with a bonus of a donation of excess goodies finding their way to Meadowbank.

Happy retirement, Bert!

Bert Hoggan indicated his retrial from "Friends of St. Margaret's" due to ill health. Bert and his late wife have been stalwarts of the group almost from its inception. Their contribution to the welfare of the residents has been boundless. Bert's pawky humour, plus his capable handling of the keyboard, encouraged all to join in many a sing-song with an occasional foray to the dance floor. We wish Bert well in his retirement, which I'm sure will be occupied in coming to terms with the intricacies of a "stair lift".
