

Fundraising Update

Since the last edition of Twinspire, three fundraising events have taken place.

Biscuit Quiz

The question, which seemed to cause most difficulty, was number 27, "No bones in this". It certainly caused debate amongst those participating and some even resorted to using Google. We hope you enjoyed trying to solve the riddles.

The answers and winners are published elsewhere in the magazine. The amount raised for the car park fund was £532.

Car Boot Sale

This was held appropriately in the new car park and, although the previous week had been wet, the weather on Saturday 26th April was sunny but with a cold easterly wind.

We were pleasantly surprised by the response to this event, with 37 stalls in operation. A good number of sellers had responded to notices placed locally and in the Falkirk Herald, and this was an income stream from a different source.

The event could perhaps have benefited from an increase in the number of customers buying, but £397 was raised for the car park fund. This might be an event worth considering again.

and never allowed himself a bit of fun and relaxation,
he would go mad or become unstable

Fashion Show

The weather was again kind to us on Wednesday 14th May - a bright sunny evening welcoming ladies to the fashion show held in the Church. Thanks to the efforts of four stewards in the car park, over 50 cars were taken off the road, easing any congestion in Kirk Entry. Around 180 ladies attended the fashion show and six models displayed fashions from Catwalk of Falkirk.

With each model having nine changes of outfit, the dressers behind the scenes were kept very busy during the hour-long show.

During the interval, soft drinks and chocolate wafer fingers were served, and this was followed by a humorous sketch about weddings and marriage performed by three members of the Congregation.

The committee would like to thank Pauline of Catwalk, the models, dressers and helpers who gave freely of their time to provide the fashion show. As a result, £949 was raised for the car park fund.

Walking Quiz

The next event on the calendar is a Walking Quiz around Falkirk on Friday 15th August. Further details of this will feature in the next edition of Twinspire.
