

LETTER FROM THE CHILD SPONSORED BY POPC IN GHANA VIA ACTIONAID

My message to you

I suspect this letter will not reproduce well on the photocopier, so here is a transcript:

Mudasir Mohammed and his family sends their warmest regards. Mudasir says he is happy to hear from you again. Mudasir says he learns English, Maths and their local language at school. He says members of his community helps the school through the school management committee. Action Aid has also supported by building a school block for them. Mudasir says that the major occupation in his community is farming and the people grow yam, maize, fruits and vegetables to sell on market days which comes off every week.

The letter is written and signed by Ibrahim H. Fouzia
(Field Worker for Action Aid.)

Update on child

Mudasir Mohammed and his family sends their warmest regards. Mudasir says he is happy to hear from you again. Mudasir says he learns English, Maths and their local language at school. He says members of his community helps the school through the school management committee. Action Aid has also supported by building a school block for them. Mudasir says that the major occupation in his community is farming and the people grow yam, maize, fruits and vegetables to sell on market days which comes off once every week.

Field Worker's Name

Ibrahim H. Fouzia